

Disney's Typhoon Lagoon

event concept | Disc Jockey at Main Beach

According to legend, a small village was built along the edge of a beautiful lagoon. Then, as fate would have it, an erratic typhoon blew through this majestic area, devastating the village and turning everything upside down and inside out.

This great storm, however, changed everything . . . a furious, unrelenting typhoon catching a small fleet of ships by surprise and tossing them about like toy boats for one terrifying hour. But in the storm's wake was left a remarkable scene. A surfboard had penetrated completely through a huge tree. A small boat had blown through the roof of one building. A great buoy had crashed through the roof of still another. The Placid Palms Resort was now the Leaning Palms, almost ready to topple over at any moment.

A small harbor had been cut off from the sea, trapping an overturned boat and thousands of colorful fish, plus a few sharks along the way! Nothing, however, topped the sight of the shrimp boat, "Miss Tilly", impaled precariously on the peak of the great volcanic mountain. To this day, the mountain tries vainly to dislodge its unwelcome burden with an enormous geyser of water every half-hour!

Kick off your shoes and get ready to party the night away! A lush tropical oasis is the setting for your dinner event. Disney's Typhoon Lagoon Water Park Main Beach will be alive with music and excitement, and don't forget, great food!

The clock tower stage will be the hub of your seaside entertainment. A high energy, interactive disc jockey entertains Guests and encourages dancing in the sand!
